Trust Board 16 January 2008 Item 3 Appendix 2 DRAFT Foundation Trust Network

FTN – GUIDANCE NOTE

Job Profile for the Secretary of the Boards of a Foundation Trust

Introduction

NHS Foundation Trusts (FTs) are established under the provisions of the National Health Service Act 2006 (the Act). The legislation constituted NHS FTs with a new governance regime that is fundamentally different from NHS trusts. FT boards of directors now have more autonomy and responsibility to make financial and strategic decisions. They also have a framework of local accountability through members and a board of governors, which has replaced central control from the Department of Health and ultimately the Secretary of State for Health.

The Act does not impose a legal requirement on FTs to engage a Trust Secretary but due to the additional compliance and governance requirements attached to FTs it may be good practice to appoint one and many FTs have made such appointments.

The following provides guidance as to the core duties and responsibilities a Trust Secretary could be expected to fulfil.

Overall Purpose

The Trust Secretary will be responsible for ensuring that the Foundation Trust complies with its legal, constitutional and regulatory requirements. He or she will establish procedures for sound governance of the Trust and will advise the boards on developments in governance issues. He or she will also ensure that meetings of the Executive Board, the Boards of Governors and committees run efficiently and effectively, that they are properly recorded and that directors and governors receive appropriate support.
